To Whom it May Concern;

Keith Bryant has been a weather intern at NBC10 in Philadelphia during the spring of 2013. To say that he has been outstanding would be an understatement.

Keith's level of enthusiasm and work ethic are unmatched. He was supposed to work 3 days a week, but often would come on a day off if the weather was active. That's dedication. He was always asking if there was something else he could do.

His level of knowledge of our new computer graphics system was so advanced that he was teaching us some of his new tricks. On camera, he kept improving all spring and continued to gain confidence.

Keith would clearly be a great employee for any company, in any position. I have rarely seen an intern with such a great attitude.

Sincerely,
